

Powder Horn 2012

Greater St. Louis Area Council

What: Powder Horn has been designed to help the unit by exposing the adults and older youth in Boy Scouts and Venturing to safely conduct outdoor and high adventure activities of a FUN and challenging nature. It provides an introduction to the resources needed to successfully lead the youth through a program of outdoor high adventure. This course is based upon giving participants an exposure to outdoor/high adventure activities and not a certification event. It is for adults and older youth that are interested in having unit-level high adventure program.

Who: Any positioned-trained and registered adult leader OR a registered Venturer or Boy Scout youth (16 years old or older).

When: Weekend #1: April 20th–22nd, 2012
Weekend #2: May 4th–6th, 2012

Where: Weekend #1: Beaumont Scout Reservation, High Ridge, MO.
Weekend #2: S Bar F Scout Ranch at Swift Base, Knob Lick, MO.

Why: The purpose is to educate the adults leaders and youth about specific high adventure skills, to connect them to resources to deliver those skills, and to get them excited about delivering those skills in an exciting way to the youth.

Cost: $250 per participant –
$50 non-refundable deposit required with application form

How do I sign up: Participants need to complete the Registration Form and send the form to the Greater St. Louis Area Council with their deposit.
